

Computer Program Rubric

	0 Points	2 Points	3 Points	6 Points	9 points	Score/Level
Turned in on Time	Program was not turned in on time, so the program was unable to be graded.	Program was turned in on time and was able to be graded.	Not applicable.	Not applicable.	Not applicable.
Program Functionality	Program could not be run to test whether it produced the desired result because it was not turned in on time.	Not applicable.	Program could not run due to syntax error(s). Program could not be run to test whether it produced the desired result.	Program runs without any syntax errors, but does not produce the desired result.	Program runs without any syntax errors and produces the desired result.
Program Components	Program could not be inspected to determine whether it contained all of the required components because it was not turned in on time.	Not applicable.	Program is missing three or more required components in their program.	Program is missing one or two required components, but no more!	Student has included every required component in their program. There are no missing components!	